Department of Mathematics
Wilfrid Laurier University

Citigroup Presentation

Participants from Citigroup:

John Showell
Director: Global Rates Technology

James Goulstone
Vice-President: Rates Technology Pricing

Noah Taylor
Vice-President: Algorithmic Trading, Fixed Income Flow

When: Wednesday, March 2, 2011

Start Time: 3:00 p.m.

Where: Bricker Academic Building, BA110

Topics Include: Job opportunities with Citigroup; Introduction to algorithmic trading in fixed income; Use of mathematics and statistics illustrated by fixed income valuations.

Who should attend: Any one considering a career in the financial sector, especially senior undergraduate and graduate students in Computer Science, Mathematics, Financial Mathematics, Business Administration, Economics.

Note: Mr. Taylor graduated from Laurier with the double degree: Honours BBA and Honours Mathematics in 2005.